Technology Acceptable Use Policy

Fontbonne provides computing devices to enhance the educational experience of its students. Computers are located in various sites throughout the building, which is also set up for wireless Internet access. Students may bring their personal laptop computers, tablets, and/or e-readers to school. Students in grades 7-11 receive Chromebooks, which belong to the school. Students and parents/guardians are required to sign a contract and pay for insurance annually.

Students are expected to exercise the privilege of using these electronic devices in a manner consistent with the educational objectives of the school; and therefore, all devices are subject to search. The use of personal electronic equipment will be monitored to assure that it is being used for academic purposes only. Use of electronic equipment in a classroom is regulated by the teacher.

Fontbonne provides secure Internet access through a wifi network while students are at school. All students are expected to have Internet access at home in the event that classes are held remotely. If a student does not have access to the Internet at home, the student and parents/guardians should inform the Head of School immediately.

Each student is given a Fontbonne email account to be used for school-related purposes. Students are expected to check their email on a daily basis.

Any online activity which is disruptive or offensive to other students or adults is subject to disciplinary action. Students who use school computers or Chromebooks; their personal laptop computers/tablets/e-readers; or their Fontbonne email accounts for unethical, illegal, personal, or mischievous purposes will be referred to the administration for disciplinary action and may lose their computer privileges.
