Halloween Celebration

On Thursday, October 29th, the little sisters and mentors got together virtually to celebrate Halloween. They played games, learned how to fold origami pumpkins, and shared Halloween candy and a little bit about themselves. Congratulations to the winner of the scavenger hunt Susan and the winner of Halloween trivia Emma!

Meet the Mentor

Fiona McDonald, '21, Quincy

Fiona is a senior at and one of the Admit 6 leaders. Fiona is vice president of The Good Fountain Players and president of both, National Honor Society and Academy Tutors. She is also a member of Peer Ministry Council, Retreat Leaders, Ducks in Action Service Team, and Ambassadors. "I chose Fontbonne because of the incredible community and outstanding academics. Fontbonne has helped me, along with so many other young women over the years, to become more intellectually curious, a stronger critical thinker, and a more effective communicator. I have also been given the opportunity to explore my passions outside the classroom and hold numerous leadership roles. Fontbonne is a place where everyone is loved and welcomed and where community and service to the dear neighbor are at the forefront of all that we do." Fiona is the mentor of Admit 6 little sister, Susan.

Upcoming events

November 19th

In November, the Admit 6 little sisters and mentors will come together to engage in and learn more about the Sisters of St. Joseph's call to serve to the dear neighbor without distinction. We will work with Love Letters for Literacy to create alphabet books for children in need. Details to follow.
